

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Department of English is an integral component of an arts and science college. It is bound to offer courses and papers in English language and organize language-related programmes and activities for the students. The Department, therefore, holds a key position in setting and strengthening linguistic and cultural milieu of an institution in general. The department of English in our college has been swiftly heading, with a clear vision and line of thought, towards its objectives in a very short span of 6 years since the inception of the institution. The Department offers an undergraduate course in English language and Literature and maintains high standards in academics by employing all the advanced tools.

- ‘Theatre Corner’ by Shri. Benyamin, renowned novelist and award-winning author of ‘Aadujivitham’. It was formed to introduce the world of the Classic Films to the students.
- A National Seminar on “ Changing Perspectives: Challenges and Suggestions of Teaching Literature in Language Classrooms” was organised by the department. Dr. P Bhaskaran Nair, formerly of Pondicherry University and ELT expert, inaugurated the seminar and enriched the students with his scholarly talk on the topic. Presence and interaction of teachers and students had made the event a grand success.
- The third endeavour was the screening of a number of films and documentaries related to the syllabus. Film as a learning tool not only brought students closer to the topics and literary works in the syllabus but also expanded their horizons in a great deal.

Department English Secured an attractive results more than 80% for last few years.

